

Enrico Nocivelli – Member of the Board of Directors

After graduating from the Statale University of Milan with a law degree and a final dissertation in M&A, he moved to the United States where he gained experience in various fields with roles ranging from the showbusiness & entertainment industry to real estate investing to advertising.

He then moved back to Italy, where he cofounded Epta SpA in 2003 with his father and siblings. Since then he served several key positions inside the Epta Group, such as vice-President Epta SpA from 2007 to 2012, Chairman of Costan SpA in Italy until 2012 and finally as Chairman of Epta Qingdao from 2007 to 2013, a post through which he contributed to the development of the Group's direct presence in mainland China, whilst attending the company's controlling board, of which he has been an active member to date.
