

RETAIL CARES

While many businesses in the retail industry were adversely affected by the Covid-19 pandemic, many are still there to help fellow Filipinos. Kudos to our retailers, who despite the hardship and challenges continue to serve others. Here are some inspiring stories shared by our members:

Epta's solidarity to support local communities

As the world fights an unprecedented sanitary emergency against Covid-19, and everybody is trying to give their contribution in order to support hospitals and people in difficult situations, Epta Refrigeration Phils. Inc. sprang into action by donating Php 5.2 million worth of 5,000 PPEs which were donated to San Lazaro Hospital in Manila.

The Philippine operation is part of a multinational company Epta Spa which specializes in commercial refrigeration headquartered in Italy. The Group is represented by the Families Nocivelli and Triglio Godino, which overall has so far donated more than 1 million euros to support Italian hospitals and local communities.
