

Epta refuses indifference and makes the difference with Legambiente

2023-10-08

Epta refuses indifference and makes the difference with Legambiente, supporting its initiatives in favour of cleaner public green space with specific active participation in the Park Litter project promoted by the association for spreading a culture of volunteerism.

To view the complete content, please log in.