

Roland Faihs – Member of the Board of Directors

Born in Klagenfurt, Austria in 1965. He graduated in industrial engineering from the Technical University Graz, Austria in 1990. Afterwards he joined the Austrian based paper and packaging group Nettingsdorfer (today member of the international Paper and Packaging group Smurfit Westrock) as assistant of the CEO. After covering first roles as project lead in reorganisation and rationalisation projects he became member of the boards of directors of the Italian shareholdings of Nettingsdorfer (Corrugated packaging companies) covering the areas of Finance and Controlling and management of the shareholdings. He became CEO and Managing Director of the corrugated packaging company Cartopiave S.p.A. in 2001 and contributed to the integration of Nettingsdorfer into Smurfit Westrock. In 2007 he joined the Management Board of delfortgroup AG as CFO and COO (Austrian based group operating in the area of speciality Papers). He contributed to the international growth and development of delfort until 2024. Afterwards he changed to several board functions and consultancy activities.

During the last decades he was member of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Boards of several international group companies of Smurfit Nettingsdorfer and delfort, member of the Supervisory Board of the Austrian Insurance company HDI, head of the Section Paper Industry of the Austrian Chamber of Commerce and member of the Board of the Austrian Federation of the Paper Industry.

He is currently member of the supervisory board of the Austrian based paper and packaging group Rondo Ganahl AG and consultant to the board of delfortgroup AG. In 2026 he was appointed as a member of the Board of Directors of Epta S.p.A.
