

Enrico Maria Luigi Fagioli Marzocchi – Member of the Board of Directors

Graduated in Business Administration from Milan's Luigi Bocconi University in 1980. He began his career at Arthur Andersen in London (1980-1981) and later at Interbanca in Milan (1982). From 1983 to 1992, he worked at Studio Aletti Agenti di Cambio (now Banca Aletti – Milan), first exclusively as floor trader and then also as an M&A Advisor. From 1992 to 1999 he worked at KPMG Consulting – Milan (Corporate Finance) where, from 1994, he served as partner responsible for corporate finance activities conducted with Italian financial institutions and in charge of finance and treasury. After a brief stint with Salomon Smith Barney (London), in 2000 he was appointed CEO of Efibanca S.p.A. (Rome), a company specialised in industrial credit for medium-sized enterprises and merchant banking activities. He served as CEO of Meliorbanca S.p.A. (Milan) from 2009 until its merger with BPER in 2012, contributing, the following year, to the integration of these two companies. From 2014 to 2017, he was responsible for the Credit Risk and Problem Assets Directorate of Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena. In 2017-2018, he was called upon to rescue a number of Veneto banks and to create a joint venture for the establishment of a leading debt recovery company. In May 2018 he contributed to the foundation and development of Illimity Bank S.p.A., where he currently serves in the Growth Credit division. Over the years, he has sat on the Board of Directors of various Italian and foreign listed companies.
