

Timo Tauber – Managing Director of Viessmann Industries Holding GmbH

Timo Tauber has been Managing Director of Viessmann Industries Holding GmbH and a member of the Viessmann Generations Group since February 2016.

Viessmann Industries is the direct investment arm of the Viessmann Generations Group and holds a large number of direct majority and minority investments, primarily in Europe and North America.

Founded in 1917, Viessmann is an independent family-owned company and a global, broadly diversified group. All activities are guided by the company's purpose: "We co-create living spheres for generations to come." In pursuit of this purpose, the Viessmann Generations Group has built a global ecosystem focused on addressing urgent challenges related to climate action, water, air, food, and well-being, while continuing to co-create living spheres for generations to come.

Prior to joining Viessmann, Mr. Tauber spent five years working as an Investment Manager at a private equity fund in Frankfurt, Germany, focusing on technology leaders in the DACH Mittelstand. Before that, he worked for five years as a consultant, advising primarily family-owned businesses on buy-side and sell-side transactions.

He currently serves on several boards as a non-executive director within the Viessmann Industries portfolio, notably at KPS Global LLC, a leading provider of cooling solutions in the United States and as lecturer at Frankfurt School of Finance & Management for the M&A Master programme.

He has been appointed as non-executive director to the Epta Board in 2026.
